

ALBERT GORE RESEARCH CENTER

MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY

Middle Tennessee African American Oral History Project

Participant's name:

I voluntarily agree to be interviewed for this project to document African American history of Middle Tennessee. I understand I do not have to answer all questions posed to me by the interviewer and that I may stop the interview at any time for any reason. I understand that my interview will be recorded.

I understand that the following items may be created as part of my interview:

- an audio and/or video recording
- an edited transcript and/or summary
- a photograph of me
- copies of any personal documents or additional photos I wish to share.

I understand that my interview (and other items above) may be distributed to the public for research and/or educational purposes, including formats such as print, public programming, and via the internet.

I agree to freely share my interview (and other items above) under the terms of a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 3.0 Unported License. An easy-to-read summary and the legal license are available at this link: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/3.0/>. This means that I retain the copyright, but the public may freely copy, modify, and share these items for noncommercial purposes if they include the original source information. I understand that my interview will be archived at the Albert Gore Research Center, Middle Tennessee State University. My oral history may also be shared with public libraries and other educational institutions.

I understand that the Albert Gore Research Center will give me a copy of the interview and any transcript that may be created from my interview. I will have thirty days to review any interview recordings or transcripts. I may make corrections or clarifications in the transcript or request that any or all of the recording be restricted.
